Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 21, 2017

Dear parishioners and friends,

It may seem strange now, but it wasn't too many years ago that we may have heard that the pastor was called out in the middle of the night to administer Last Rites. You may have seen a dramatic scene on TV of a priest racing to the scene of a dying person before it was too late. The sacrament at the time was called Extreme Unction. Most people had a wooden crucifix that contained candles and oil, called a sick call kit, for when the priest arrived.

There are some folks yet who are still afraid to see a priest in their hospital room or their bedside for fear they are dying and going to receive Last Rites. Fear not! That has all changed. You may receive the Anointing of the Sick, it's present terminology, if you are going to undergo surgery or if you are seriously ill. This afternoon you will have the opportunity to be anointed by either Father Leo or Father Pistone at a Mass to be held at 2:00 pm, designated especially for those in need of physical or mental healing.

The Scriptural basis for the anointing of the sick is found in James 5:14-15: "Is any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the Church and have them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And their prayer offered in faith will heal the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven." Only a priest can administer this anointing.

In today's Gospel Jesus says, "If you love me, keep my commandments." How wrong I was to think His love is unconditional, no strings attached. Jesus loves us way too much to let us to our own volition, so He set up the love=obey equation. As two little girls were reading our church sign with that very verse, they smiled with understanding when they were told that Jesus loves them, even more than their parents do, and that Jesus wants them to obey their parents. What an uplifting moment!

Jesus also promised His disciples that He would send the Paraclete, One who would advise and encourage them when He was gone. Throughout the years the Church has been inspired by this Advocate. How is He inspiring you?

Catechism Question of the Week: In what books of the Bible are we reminded that lordship over the world and history belongs, not to man, but to the Father and the Son? (see CCC 450)

- Your generous support enables us to bring the gift of hope and healing to the uninsured and underinsured, those who cannot afford their co-pays and deductibles. . . . In the words of our patient, "as a struggling patient who nearly lost hope several times in the past year, Mission of Mercy has been there for me. My medications cost me upwards of $1,290 per month plus doctor office visits that I couldn't afford. We can actually walk into the grocery store now, knowing we can eat and still receive medical care." —Linda Ryan, Executive Director, Mission of Mercy
- Thank you for your gift of $1,000. We are committed to leading the way to a healthier community for children and families in the Lancaster community. —Philip K. Goropoulos, President, CHI St. Joseph Children's Health, Lancaster

FROM ST. MARY'S ARCHIVES

From "St. Mary's Church, Lancaster, Pa 1785-1877" by Edgar A. Musser:
Very Rev. Bernard Keenan, V.G. [St. Mary's 24th pastor from 1823-1877] - Bernard Keenan was born in Forma, near Omagh, Parish of Bardano, County Tyrone, Northern Ireland, on August 7, 1779. ...On January 1, 1821, Bernard Keenan was ordained a priest in St. Mary's Cathedral, Philadelphia, by Bishop Conwell. He was forty-one years of age and was the first priest to be ordained in the Diocese of Philadelphia, which at that time included all of Pennsylvania, Delaware and the lower half of New Jersey. Father Keenan as a young man was not in the best of health, and at the time of his ordination was believed to be approaching the last stages of tuberculosis. His physician once told him that one lobe of his left lung had been entirely destroyed by the disease. He had been ordained to the priesthood before completing his studies of philosophy and theology, and the bishop therefore sent him to Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md., to complete the courses required for the practice of his vocation. At Mount St. Mary's, in addition to his enrollment as a student, he served in the capacity of professor of languages. The healthy climate of Catoctin Mountain, a spur of the Blue Ridge, benefitted Father Keenan and his health improved noticeably. ...In 1823, when the death of Father Holland created a vacancy in Lancaster, Father Keenan was appointed to St. Mary's by Bishop Conwell. This was the beginning of the longest, and probably the most eventful, pastorate in the history of St. Mary's Parish. ...To be continued.
