St. Mary’s Leaves a Legacy.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last Summer, this column proclaimed that we were moving ahead with the next step in our Legacy Project, and this Summer we’re celebrating its completion!

Unbelievable! It’s beautiful, and I stand in awe of your sacrifice and patience, both which were so necessary as we completed this almost year-long phase.

This was a huge undertaking. The last phase gave us accessible entrances to the church and the front of the convent. This recent phase blesses us with not only a new and beautiful convent stairway entrance off the courtyard, which we’re calling Solomon’s Portico, but a ground-level-accessible entrance to our new elevator. This elevator gives us access to the basement and our two new adult education classrooms, called the Saint Kolbe Room and the Saint John Paul II Room as well as access to the cafeteria and kitchen, which are both getting facelifts this Summer. It will also take passengers to our new Hospitality Suite on the convent’s first floor, a beautiful large room which we’ve appropriately named Assumption Hall. With its kitchenette, this room can host over 90 people seated at tables and even more for lectures and other presentations. This eloquent hall will be the site of our weekend hospitality after Masses and many large parish group events and meetings like the Mothers Group, a monthly meeting that draws moms from numerous local parishes who will also be using our wonderful new nursery, and our soon to begin TMIY! This will be the site of our future funeral luncheons. It is here that pilgrims on bus tours will first hear about our history and explore our parish archives displayed in the beautiful new handmade cabinet before heading over to our magnificent church. It is on this floor that the four newly-installed handicap-accessible restrooms can be found. We will also have elevator access to the second floor, home of our convent chapel and our gym/auditorium.

We’re going to really use these rooms! Following our Grand Opening Celebration pictured on page 1, the first group to really use this space was our VBS—Vacation Bible School. This year’s theme was “Shipwrecked: Rescued by Jesus.” With well over 40 little ones involved this year, as well as a host of parents, grandparents, young adults and teens volunteering under the direction of Keri Kiefer, it was one incredible adventure leading children of all ages closer to Christ. Having this air-conditioned space was a huge blessing! “Jesus Rescues!”

So, are we done? That’s a question we all have to ask ourselves. We do have some money set aside for rooms still not built, part of future phases. I know I have dreams! I dream of a large banquet hall and a new kitchen on the same floor as the Assumption Hall for parish events and Community Meals. I dream of choir and youth ministry rooms as well as new classrooms for our kids and those renting our facilities. Recently, I received a donation for a new altar for our convent chapel that we purchased at a greatly reduced price from the Diocese of Allentown, and I dream of this chapel being restored to its original beauty, a dignified beauty that our sisters experienced when they prayed there. With the new elevator access, wouldn’t this be a great place for group Masses, adoration and retreats? I think now is a time for us to give thanks and celebrate the legacy you have already left for future generations, and yes... I think we should continue to dream! May God complete what He has begun in us!

A few final thoughts...

First, if you haven’t signed up for a picture for our parish’s historic Legacy Edition of our Parish Directory, then now is the time. You don’t want to be left out of this edition. Not only is this a practical tool for parish life, but grateful future generations will want to know who you are! Who were the people who left this great legacy? Sign up now!

Secondly, if you are a man who takes his vocation seriously, That Man is You or TMIY is definitely where you’ll want to be. Beginning Saturday, September 15, in our Assumption Hall, we will launch this program and join the nationwide movement to transform ourselves, our families and our society. Sign up now!

And finally, please mark your calendars for our upcoming Parish Picnic on September 16. We have so much to celebrate; let’s celebrate together!

In Christ’s peace,
That Man Is You.

By Joe Clupp

That Man is You (TMIY) is coming to St. Mary’s in September. We live in a world in which we are challenged with constant spiritual battles; we cannot enter into such battles for our families without being armed. Men, TMIY is for YOU! In Genesis we read about Adam and Eve in the garden and we often forget that Adam was with Eve when the devil tempted her (Genesis 3:6) and he did not defend her from the evil one. Yes, he might have been out of his league dealing with satan, but he forgot that God was on his side.

TMIY is a program designed to help men become better leaders, especially in our families and promote renewal of the Church. This program addresses the pressures and temptations that we face in our modern culture, especially in our roles as fathers and husbands by addressing current social and medical science with the teachings of the Church and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of man fully alive.

The program is currently in its first year at St. John Neumann Parish and in its second year at St. Leo’s. The men who have attended the program have found it to be very informative and impactful in their spiritual lives and in their roles of husbands and dads. We are currently forming a core team to bring this program to the men of St. Mary’s in the Fall of 2018. The program will consist of 13 weekly sessions in the Fall with a break around Christmas and the restart in late January with 13 more weeks through the Spring.

Our goal is to offer this at a time which we believe will have the least impact on work and family time. That might mean a sacrificial offering of a few hours of sleep on a Saturday morning, but think about how often we get up early to go to the gym, to get some extra work done or to get an early start on our travels to make it there before the crowds.

Who is the man called to defend his family in a time of spiritual warfare? Is That Man You? Contact Joe Clupp or go to TMIY on your web browser for more information.

Deacon Manny Celebrates 40 Years.

Deacon Manuel Velasquez celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the diaconate with a Mass, celebrated by Fr. Allan Wolfe, at San Juan Bautista Church on June 12. In his homily, Father Wolfe praised Deacon Manny for his untiring service and faithfulness to God and to the people of San Juan and St. Mary’s. He also applauded Deacon Manny’s wife Sila, for her love and support of his ministry. Following Mass, a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, celebrating this blessed event.

Deacon Manny was ordained by Bishop Joseph T. Daly to the Order of the Permanent Diaconate in June 1978 at St. Patrick Cathedral. This was the first in the diocese since the Second Vatican Council re-established the Office of the Diaconate in 1963.

Transitional Deacon Assignment.

“First, I would just like to thank everyone in the St. Mary’s community for how welcoming you all have been! When I first received this assignment, I was told how lucky I was to be sent here because of all the amazing people in the parish. Turns out, you all have been even better than advertised, and you were highly praised to begin with. Undoubtedly, I have learned a lot about what it means to be a priest from Fr. Leo, the parish staff, and of course, all of you. In my time here, I’ve been blessed to have the opportunity to share meals with some of you, visit the sick and homebound at home or at the hospital, participate in VBS, teach a lecture series, preach at Mass, and get to know many of you in one way or another. It has truly been a blessing! Never underestimate the power of a loving and welcoming Christ-centered community. I have had a great experience so far, and I look forward to continuing to minister to you all in the future!”

Blessings,

Deacon Josh Weaver attends St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. He will be ordained a priest for the Diocese of Harrisburg in June of 2019.
Milestone Anniversaries 2018.

By Joe Clupp

Each year St. Mary’s recognizes couples who are celebrating milestone anniversaries. This year, ten couples were recognized for their long-standing commitment to one another in their sacrament of service. In a time when the definition of marriage is challenged and when marriage is no longer viewed as a lifetime commitment, it is uplifting to recognize these men and women who have chosen to live their sacrament of Holy Matrimony with perseverance 25 or 50 or 55 years.

In the sacrament of Marriage couples are called to share in the life-giving intimacy of the Trinity. Couples are called to model Christ’s love for us in giving of themselves freely to each other. Thus the sacrament is both fruitful in the love that brings and keeps the couple together and Eucharistic in the self-giving lives in which couples grow in the image of God. God created man in His image: in the divine image He created them; male and female He created them (Genesis 1:27). That is not because we have the same eyes or hair color or other physical features but we are made to bring forth life and have sacrificial love for one another. Thus the sacrament of Marriage belongs not only to the couple but to the entire Church as it models these virtues for all of us.

This past year, the marriage enrichment group looked at the four cardinal virtues: Prudence, Justice, Fortitude and Temperance. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops points out that, “As a couple grows in virtue, they grow in holiness.” To persevere, couples need to exhibit these virtues to make wise decisions together, to give to God and each other their due, to be courageous in their daily lives and to learn to live with self-control and moderation.

As a parish we celebrate all the couples who have persevered and have given us a model of self-giving service to each other and their families in their sacrament of Holy Matrimony. They have demonstrated that love is more than mere emotion and like Christ’s love perseveres until the end.

The following couples were recognized for celebrating milestone anniversaries at Mass this year.

“I feel very blessed and honored to be the new CRE here at St. Mary’s. St. Mary’s has been a huge part of my life ever since I was confirmed into the Church in 2009. My husband and I were married by Fr. Leo. He also confirmed me, baptized our three children, and recently gave First Communion to our oldest daughter. I have met so many beautiful people at St. Mary’s and truly feel the warmth of family every time I enter our church.

“I am a Registered Dietitian with a B.S. in Nutrition and Dietetics. Being a dietitian over these past 13 years has strengthened my skills in teaching, public speaking, organization, and relationship-building. Educating others has been a rewarding and significant facet of my whole career. I have also been homeschooling for two years and am part of a core group of homeschool moms who have developed a Catholic homeschool cooperative for approximately 50 children. We completed our first year successfully and are currently enrolling for our second year.

“I hope you will join me in praying for the children of St. Mary’s, that together we can strengthen their faith, bring more of them to love Jesus, and bring more families back to the faith!”

Mothers Group Brunch.

In March, our Mothers Group had a beautiful brunch at Grace Blake’s home. This was an amazing morning of fellowship and a time for us to get to know each other more intimately. We were very blessed by our husbands who took care of our older children so we could have our mom time!

Bloom—A Foster and Adoption Ministry.

We are excited to announce a new ministry at St. Mary’s – Bloom – led by Lauren Booth! Bloom is a foster and adoption ministry serving Foster Youth and Foster/Adoptive families of Lancaster County. Their mission is to provide a free resource for babies, children and teens to “shop” for new or like-new clothing, shoes and accessories. Often children placed in foster care come with just the clothing they are wearing or what can be quickly thrown in a trash bag. Bloom’s desire is to restore dignity and self-worth as well as fill their practical needs.

Future goals are to offer meal vouchers/freezer meals for families bringing home a new foster placement, a “sensory diet library” and mentoring program pairing seasoned foster parents with new foster parents as well as overall support for foster/adoptive families.

Located on the third floor of our convent, they have worked hard to renovate the space and provide a calm and welcoming place for kids to shop in a boutique style setting! Bloom will have a small play area for the children to enjoy during their visit here. The volunteers are excited to provide not just clothing, but encouragement for our kids to see themselves as valued and worthy of love and acceptance.

Bloom is grateful for this opportunity to serve those in our parish as well as in our community. There are already a lot of donations coming in as well as a good beginning group of volunteers – God is doing something great! For more information, please contact Lauren Booth at bloomfosterministry@gmail.com.
The Young Church is Excited in Youth Ministry.

By Bob Cybulski

It seems like only yesterday that we embarked on the Youth Ministry 2017-2018 year! It went by like a flash!

Our three main themes for Youth Ministry in 2017-2018:

⇒ The Young Church. How do we grow the young Church?
⇒ Service. How to effect and change our community?
⇒ Relationships. How do we build better relationships?

There are many highlights across our themes. In the area of service, we prayed for over 100 of our parishioners and found a new way to help with Community Meals by having the youth serve the guests at their tables like waiters or waitresses. It’s amazing to watch our youth group interact and have conversations with the needy of our community.

We also spent some time on, “Am I special?” Nope. I am AWESOME! This is such a difficult concept even for me today cuz… How can I feel special when I keep messing up? In fact, I wonder how in the world God can love a mess up like me? And my mess ups are always being “re-enforced.” Even when I think that I did something well, someone will point out a flaw. When that happens, I wind up focusing on the FLAW and not the accomplishment. Unfortunately, these FLAWS could cause me to spiral down. Since each new mess up seems to reinforce the previous one.

Recently, I heard someone say, when you get hit with a failure, you have a choice of spiraling down or tornadoing up. Hmmm, this would mean that I would focus on the positive and even use the mess up or failure as incentive. Is that even possible?

Absolutely! From personal experience, when I was struggling through my parents’ divorce and living with my alcoholic dad and dropping out of college and on and on. I never gave up. Sure there were bad days like not having enough money for dinner, so Burger King to the rescue where I could buy two whoppers for two dollars. Through it all, I knew that God was with me. God made us all special and unique! Not only is our thumb print unique, but think about our DNA. God has a plan for us, even when we are carrying our crosses, He is shaping us to do our mission for Him. So, when we get hit, let us choose to Tornado Up and avoid the Spiral Down!

We also had some other fun nights like Crosswords for Crossroads, where we built giant crossword puzzles on the floor moving us from something like greed to JOY (Jesus Others You) or Super Powers for Super Heroes, where we had to use saintly super powers to cross an obstacle course.

The Youth Group also hosted a touching Shadow Stations of the Cross that depicted Jesus’ final hours on earth. They used a sheet and a spotlight to portray the scenes of Jesus on His way to Calvary.

Wow, what a year! We’ve only just begun. In the Fall, we will have our annual Mini-Golf Kickoff, with youth group nights that might include an escape room or time travel…I can’t wait!!!
First Holy Communion at St. Mary’s took place from April 14 through April 22. Some received their First Communion at a weekend Mass with their families. Others received their First Communion with a large group on April 21.

Jesus came to bless you on your First Communion Day. May you feel His loving presence in a very special way as you strive to follow His footsteps. May He bless your life with many graces!

We are praying for all of our graduating seniors!!!

Crowning of Mary.

Devotion to Mary, one of the most obvious features of Catholicism, originated in early Christianity and is closely associated with the mystery of Mary’s Son, Jesus. You may recall a time in the Church when a whole afternoon was set aside to recite the Living Rosary, sing Marian hymns and crown the Blessed Mother as Queen of heaven and earth. We have revived this custom at St. Mary’s with a simple crowning of Mary at the beginning of the Sunday Masses on the second Sunday of May. Let us grow this event!

We need you to make our new directory complete!

Go to www.stmaryslancaster.org and click on 2018 PARISH DIRECTORY to sign up today or call the Rectory Office.
Mass of Anointing of the Sick.

Our homebound and nursing home residents look forward to the annual Mass of the Sick, traditionally celebrated on the third Sunday of May. Not only is this a spiritual event, but it is a social event for our senior citizens to get to see Fr. Leo and other parishioners they haven’t seen in a year or more.

It is also a reunion of sorts for all the volunteers who look forward to the camaraderie this event has to offer. We are so grateful to the ladies in the kitchen, the drivers, the greeters and those who assist at Mass. So, “for all of those sick among you,” come to the Mass of Anointing.

Feast of the Assumption

By Don Peris

On a recent Saturday afternoon, while getting a few things ready for the weekend’s Masses, I met an older couple touring the church. They were struck, of course, by the beauty of our sanctuary. I invited them to attend one of our Masses while they were visiting. When I saw them later that weekend they wanted to tell me how moved they were by the welcome they had received and the goodness of our people. They both spoke of the serenity of our church, the holiness of our ground.

I think a part of what makes our church so special is our devotion to and relationship with the Blessed Mother. Our community is indeed graced by her peace, her calm and her gentleness. She seems to be a part of the very air we breathe.

We celebrate our titular feast, the Feast of the Assumption on August 15. Join your brothers and sisters in honoring Mary this year by coming to Mass. Consider bringing flowers and staying for cake and fellowship after the 7:00 pm Mass in our new Assumption Hall. Our church, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is a pilgrim site for all, not just for visitors from afar but for us as well...pilgrims who dwell so near.

Almighty and eternal God, who hast taken up into the glory of Heaven, with body and soul, the immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of thy son: grant us, we pray, that we may always strive after heavenly things and thus merit to share in her glory.

Amen.
Saint Michael’s Guard.

By Joe Clupp

Several years ago, members of St. Michael’s Guard from around the diocese served at Mass for the New Year’s Vigil. From that introduction came the first members of the St. Mary’s contingent of the St. Michael’s Guard. Headed by Chris Masterson, the Guard now serves at the vigil Masses on the first and third Saturdays as well as feast days, Christmas Midnight Mass and the Easter vigil. But it is more than men altar servers.

The mission of the Guard “is to provide the highest level of discipline, reverence, and humility serving at the Lord’s holy altar with the goal of sanctification of the guardsmen by the dedication, study, and discipline required to serve at the Lord’s altar.”

Chris Masterson points out that, “being a member of Saint Michael’s Guard continues to remind me of the importance of daily prayer. Prayer is a major component of the spirituality of the Guard. We are called to serve through prayer, and Christ reveals Himself and His will through prayer. My wife, Diana, and I have morning and evening prayers together along with the rosary. We firmly believe our marriage has been blessed in Christ through daily prayer.”

Guardsman, Jim Manley relates, “I joined and continue to participate with Saint Michael’s Guard because it allows me a close and intimate way to serve my Lord at His altar through the Mass. My service heightens the sanctity of the celebration for myself, my family and my fellow parishioners.”

The Guard is currently only present throughout the Harrisburg Diocese with over 130 men serving the parishes across the diocese with the permission of the Bishop. There are eleven members of the St. Mary’s contingent, 10 from St. Mary’s and one from St. John Neumann, which currently does not have a contingent. John Bennett from St. John Neumann, who can often be seen serving at St. Mary’s, credits being able to serve at the altar of our Lord, as one of the most fulfilling and rewarding activities of his life. He points to the many dedicated men of the diocese serving the Lord who bring a strong reverence to the celebration of the Eucharist.

Once a man indicates he wishes to join the guard, he enters a training period before he becomes a candidate. After about a year the candidate is then raised to the level of Guardsman at an installation ceremony. Installation ceremonies are held twice a year on the feast of the Annunciation and the feast of the Archangels to coincide with the two patrons of the Guard, the Blessed Mother and St. Michael. The next ceremony is scheduled to be held at St. Mary’s on September 29 and is open to the congregation to attend.

Men interested in participating in the ministry should contact Chris Masterson at cdmasterson@comcast.net for more information. As Guardsman Bernie Juba says, “Serving in this ministry allows me to be part of the miracle that happens at every Mass.”

Consider a Catholic education for your child!

Resurrection Catholic School’s 13th Annual Golf Outing.

Resurrection Catholic School will hold its 13th Annual Golf Outing at Meadia Heights Golf Club in Lancaster on September 11, with registration at 10:30 am and a shotgun start at 12:30 pm.

Men and women golfers may play in foursomes for $90 each. Twosomes and singles will be paired up. The day includes a hot dog and beer lunch, barbeque dinner and door prizes.

Contests include a $10,000 prize for a hole in one on hole 18, straightest drive and longest drive. Nice prizes go to those who enter the putting green contest, closest to the pin and drawing for a package valued at $350.

Sponsorships for tables, golf carts, holes and pin flags remain available. Businesses receive good exposure during the event and at the dinner for about 100 people on this private course.

Proceeds go toward the student technology fund to purchase additional access points so middle school students can use their new Chromebooks.
